Spring 2024 (2244)

Monday, January 8, 2024 – Saturday, April 27, 2024

1. REGISTRATION: In order to register for classes at Pitt-Greensburg, you must have been admitted to the campus; i.e., you must have completed an Admissions Application and paid the admissions fee, or you must have had your records submitted to Pitt-Greensburg from another Pitt campus or another college. Students who have not been admitted to Pitt-Greensburg will not be permitted to register.
2. SELF-ENROLLMENT: Mandatory advising is required to be able to self-enroll. You can schedule a meeting by contacting your faculty advisor directly or contacting your academic advisor at (724) 836-9940. An “Academic Advising Hold” is placed on a student’s account and will be removed once he/she has met with an advisor. A student who has an academic, financial, judicial or library HOLD on his/her records will not be permitted to register.

Check your “Student Services Center” tab on the Pitt portal at www.my.pitt.edu for your enrollment appointment date and time. Once an enrollment appointment begins, a student may continue self-enrolling through the add/drop period. Enrollment appointments are assigned according to the number of credits earned--seniors are given the earliest appointments.

For classes that require instructor permission, you can request the to complete the online Class Permission Override form or complete a paper copy of the Class Permission Override Form and bring the form to the Office of the Registrar for processing. This form is available in the Registrar’s Office, 120 Millstein Library Building. Special circumstances may require approval by the Director of Academic Advising.
