

University of Pittsburgh
Greensburg

Management:

Concentration in Supply Chain/Project Management

undergraduate program

Management: Concentration in Supply Chain/ Project Management

48 credits

Bachelor of Science

The Supply Chain/ Project Management Concentration provides you with a well-rounded education in the role of a project manager. Project/supply chain management is an emerging field that provides a valuable skill set in the area of acquisition, production and distribution of goods and services for numerous industries.

Employment:

- Project management
- Logistics management
- Operations Management
- Purchasing
- Management Consulting
- Industrial Management

Core Management Courses

6 courses - 18 credits

MGMT 0021	The Management Process
MGMT 0022	Financial Accounting
MGMT 0023	Managerial Accounting
MGMT 1818	Management Science
MGMT 1820	Operations Management
MGMT 1821	Introduction to Finance

Supply Chain/ Project Management Concentration

4 courses - 12 credits

MGMT 1845	International Business enterprises
MGMT 1855	Supply Chain Management
MGMT 1857	Project Management
MGMT 1859	Total Quality Management

Electives

5 courses - 15 credits

1. Choose 3 courses out of any MGMT, or INFSCI.
2. Choose 2 courses out of any MGMT, HCM, or another course from approved MGMT elective list. One of the two can be an internship for 3 credits. See an Advisor for details.

Additional Requirements

1 course - 3 credits

After earning 90 credits, and fulfilling each course within the core, all Management majors must take MGMT 1955—Strategic Management, to fulfill the capstone course requirement.

Liberal Arts Courses

Management majors must take the following courses used to satisfy the General Education requirements.

*Some of the courses listed below may have prerequisites.

CS 0098	Decision Making with Excel
MATH 0120	Business Calculus*
ECON 0100	Introduction to Microeconomic Theory
ECON 0110	Introduction to Macroeconomic Theory
PHIL 1380	Business Ethics
PSY 0680	Introduction to Industrial/Organizational Psychology*
STAT 1100	Statistics and Probability for Business Management
ENGCMP 0031	Business Writing*

www.greensburg.pitt.edu